

Maitri

BRAND SYSTEM / 2026

Every great adventure begins with a friend.

A detailed guide to Maitri's purpose, voice, identity, visual world, digital behavior, and story-led applications.

01 Foundation

Purpose, positioning, audiences, pillars, architecture

02 Expression

Personality, voice, messaging, story principles

03 Identity

Logo, colour, typography, spacing, accessibility

04 Visual world

Motifs, imagery, organic cutouts, UI, motion

05 Applications

Website, editorial, storybook, packaging, governance

Brand foundation

Maitri is a story-first companion universe. Friendship comes before product, and emotional attachment comes before expansion.

A friend who helps every child find the hero within.

Maitri creates story-rich Indian companions that help children discover courage, kindness, curiosity, and leadership through remarkable women from India's past and present.

MEANING

Maitri means friendship.

The name is not a label placed on a doll. It is the emotional contract: children first meet a friend, then enter her story.

PRINCIPLE

"Let people fall in love with the characters long before they have seen the doll."

A story-first Indian companion

CATEGORY

18-inch Indian companion dolls inspired by remarkable women.

18-inch Indian companion dolls inspired by remarkable women.

STRONGER FRAME

Children befriend brave Indian heroines before they own the doll.

Children befriend brave Indian heroines before they own the doll.

PRIMARY PROMISE

Stories and play make courage, kindness, curiosity, and leadership feel close.

Stories and play make courage, kindness, curiosity, and leadership feel close.

DIFFERENCE

Indian girlhood, regional diversity, historical memory, and parent-trusted values.

Indian girlhood, regional diversity, historical memory, and parent-trusted values.

What Maitri is here to make possible.

1

Purpose

Help children see courage and possibility in friends who feel culturally close.

2

Vision

A future where Indian stories, regions, languages, and heroines belong naturally in imaginative play.

3

Mission

Build character-led companions whose stories turn values into repeatable child-and-parent moments.

Win the child. Reassure the adult.

Child

THE HEART

Story, emotion, friendship, adventure, repeatable play.

Parent

THE BUYER

Representation, values, quality, safety, education, trust.

Gift giver

THE AMPLIFIER

A premium Indian-identity gift with emotional significance.

Educator

THE PARTNER

Story-led cultural learning and guided conversation.

The ideas every Maitri expression must 01

Friendship

A companion before a collectible.

02

Representation

Indian faces, regions, languages, and family worlds.

03

Courage with tenderness

Bravery can be patient, kind, curious, and steady.

04

History made personal

A child should feel: this story belongs to me too.

05

Play with purpose

Reading, role-play, reflection, and making reinforce one value.

One circle. Distinct friends. Connected stories.

Manu is the first anchor, not the limit of the universe. Every future companion receives her own value, place, personality, story, and child-facing emotional question.

Brand expression

The Maitri voice is warm enough for a child, grounded enough for a parent, and specific enough to feel culturally meaningful.

Warm. Brave. Curious. Rooted. Imaginative.

Warm

not sugary

Brave

not combative

Indian

not ornamental

Premium

not precious

Imaginative

not vague

Speak like a thoughtful story

VOICE 01

Child-facing

Short, vivid, curious. Make room for the child's answer.

VOICE 02

Parent-facing

Warm, credible, reassuring. Explain value without overclaiming.

VOICE 03

Character voice

Specific to her personality. Never generic motivation.

VOICE 04

Historical voice

Use 'inspired by' and separate verified history from story invention.

Build understanding in this order.

- 01

Friendship

Every great adventure begins with a friend.
- 02

Story

Each companion opens a child-sized doorway into a remarkable life.
- 03

Value

Courage, kindness, curiosity, and leadership become choices a child can try.
- Play

Books, letters, prompts, and a companion keep the story alive.
- 05

Circle

More friends and stories can grow after the first bond is proven.

Specific, warm language earns trust.

DO

- "Before she was remembered as a queen, Manu was a girl who asked why."
- "One small brave step can begin a new story."
- "Pause here. What would a kind next step look like?"
- Name the place, feeling, choice, and relationship.

AVOID

- "The ultimate educational doll for fearless girls."
- Unverified first-in-India, safety, launch, or outcome claims.
- Adult motivational slogans placed in a child's mouth.
- Using battle, royalty, or ornament as the only sign of Indian identity.

Every companion story follows the same emotional logic.

- Begin with the child
Meet curiosity, longing, fear, play, or friendship before achievement.
 - Make courage observable
Show a question, pause, attempt, repair, or kind choice.
 - Keep history honest
Separate historical anchors, interpretation, and invented scenes.
 - Invite reflection
End with room to talk, draw, write, choose, or simply listen.
 - Continue through play
Objects and activities should deepen the story, not distract from it.
-

Identity system

The open-M companion mark, Outfit wordmark, official two-colour palette, and direct motif vocabulary create a warm and recognisable system.

The companion mark and the Maitri name.

Maitri

Primary horizontal lockup

Icon-only use for favicons, avatars, seals, and small moments.

Two layered leaves meet as an open M.

1

Two presences

The mirrored leaves suggest companionship rather than an isolated hero.

2

Open centre

The notch creates an M and leaves the identity welcoming, not closed.

3

Soft layers

Three tonal layers bring depth without ornament or fine detail.

4

Symmetry

Balance makes the mark calm, memorable, and scalable.

Protect recognition before adding decoration

CLEAR SPACE = AT LEAST HALF THE MARK HEIGHT

DIGITAL MINIMUM

28 px mark / 96 px lockup

Below this size, simplify to the icon-only mark and test the open centre.

PRINT MINIMUM

8 mm mark / 26 mm lockup

Confirm output on the actual paper, finish, embroidery, or label process.

Keep the mark light, clear, and unforced.

USE

- Use the approved rose layered mark on cream, white, or calm pale fields.
- Pair horizontally with Outfit Bold 'Maitri' in plum.
- Use icon-only where the brand name is already known.
- Test one-colour plum and reversed cream for production.

AVOID

- Do not place the mark inside a circle, bubble, tile, or badge by default.
- Do not add shadows, outlines, glows, or extra ornaments.
- Do not rotate, stretch, recolour individual layers, or close the centre.
- Do not combine it with crowns, swords, forts, or a Manu-specific silhouette.

Pastel crimson and pastel orange lead.

Pastel Crimson

#FF96AF

Emotion, courage, friendship

Pastel Orange

#FFB098

Warmth, story light, optimism

Plum Ink

#451039

Headlines, names, primary text

Soft Cream

#FFF8ED

Primary warm surface

The two pastels are expressive brand colours. Use Plum Ink for readable copy and Soft Cream for warmth. Do not use the pastels as body text on white.

The world can expand without diluting the brand.

Crimson

Orange

Teal

Violet

Amber

Blue

Supporting accents belong to companion worlds, state cues, and small storytelling moments. They never replace the official crimson-orange lead.

Beauty must not carry meaning alone.

- Readable text
Use Plum Ink on cream/white for body copy and important controls.
- Gradient restraint
The official gradient is for large expressive labels, never critical instructions.
- Contrast
Target 4.5:1 for body text and 3:1 for large text and UI boundaries.
- Focus
Keep visible keyboard focus; never rely on hover or colour alone.
- Motion
Respect reduced motion and keep page transitions under half a second.

Outfit is the single family.

Every great adventure begins with a friend.

Rounded, modern, friendly, and clean enough for a premium consumer brand. One family keeps the website, story materials, packaging, and digital interfaces coherent.

EXTRA BOLD 800

Display and campaign headlines

BOLD 700

Wordmark, section titles, calls to action

SEMI BOLD 600

Labels, navigation, captions

REGULAR 400

Body copy and longer reading

Warm, bold hierarchy without childish typography.

01 Display 56–88 px / 0.96–1.02 line height / Bold–ExtraBold

02 Section headline 36–64 px / 1.0 line height / Bold

03 Narrative eyebrow 20–30 px / gradient / Bold / title case

Body 16–20 px / 1.5–1.7 line height / Regular–Medium

05 Control label 12–15 px / 1.2 line height / SemiBold–Bold

Visual world

Maitri's world is made from circles and layers as cutouts: soft asymmetry, direct motifs, warm storybook imagery, glass navigation, and calm motion.

Twelve approved shapes. No enclosing bubbles.

MOTIF 18

MOTIF 19

MOTIF 20

MOTIF 21

MOTIF 22

MOTIF 23

MOTIF 24

MOTIF 25

MOTIF 26

MOTIF 27

MOTIF 28

MOTIF 29

Use motifs as editorial punctuation, story anchors, and decorative rhythm. Render the SVG directly - never inside circles, coloured tiles, borders, or shadows.

Soft asymmetry creates a recognisable Maitri f

- Use one dominant organic crop, not several competing shapes.
- Add one or two offset translucent layers for depth.
- Keep edges soft and asymmetrical; avoid perfect circles as the default.
- Let the image remain readable without overlays.
- Use restraint: the crop supports the story, it is not the story.

Cinematic warmth with emotionally rich elements.

STORYBOOK Warm light, place, emotion, relationship

PRODUCT Premium, playable, culturally rooted

WORLD Child-led scale, discovery, invitation

Show courage through attention, not spectacle

DIRECTION

What to show

Children leaning forward, noticing, listening, trying, repairing, and sharing.
Warm natural or storybook light with tactile fabrics, paper, wood, stone, and flowers.
Indian settings and objects that belong to the story rather than decorate it.
Expressions that feel emotionally open, curious, and specific.

GUARDRAIL

What to avoid

Fierce warrior poses as the first or only image of courage.
Overly royal styling for Manu's childhood story.
Generic luxury still life disconnected from children or story.
AI imagery with unstable faces, hands, clothing, text, or historical claims.

A premium story surface, not an internal dashboard

UI 01

Glass navigation

Translucent cream, white border, blur, soft depth, pill silhouette.

UI 02

Open composition

Use whitespace, paths, image rhythm, and typography before containers.

UI 03

Purposeful containment

Forms, menus, readers, and controls may own visible boundaries.

UI 04

Direct motifs

Approved SVGs appear bare; conventional icons remain for controls.

UI 05

Continuous atmosphere

No harsh straight dividers or stacked edge-to-edge panels.

Movement should feel alive, never restless.

Ambient

Unhurried circle drift, breathing, and slight rotation.

Interactive

Small lift, spring, or image response on hover and focus.

Navigation

Brief fade, blur, and 5-8 px travel between pages.

Timing

180-520 ms for interface transitions; 5-9 s for ambient loops.

Accessibility

Disable non-essential motion when reduced motion is requested.

Applications

The identity proves itself when every touchpoint feels like the same friendship: website, storybook, packaging, social content, and partner materials.

The live site is the current source of truth.

NAVIGATION

Glass and calm

The mark and wordmark anchor a translucent pill with blur, borders, soft opacity, and clear actions.

HIERARCHY

Story before product

The homepage explains the universe, then introduces companions, stories, and the first box.

Identity grows through distinct friends.

Companion previews share one frame size and rhythm while each character retains her own role, place, world, story, and supporting accent.

- Lead with name, story, and emotional promise.
- Keep the Maitri mark and official palette consistent.
- Use supporting colours to distinguish worlds, not fragment the brand.
- Let the child meet the friend before reading product detail.

Facts, values, story, and play speak one language.

My story begins beside the Ganga in Bithoor, long before I was remembered as Rani Lakshmibai of Jhansi. I love horses, brave questions, and the kind of courage that grows one small step at a time.

Read Manu's first story →

See all companions →

Meet Manu

Get to know your new story companion.

FULL NAME

Manikarnika

Everyone calls her Manu.

HER STORY BEGINS

Bithoor

Beside the Ganga, before her journey became known. Bithoor with the...

GET TO KNOW THE FRIEND

Especially learning patiently with Badal.

ASKING COURAGE

Manu asks why when something feels unfair.

TRYING COURAGE

Manu begins even when the first step feels hard.

KINDNESS COURAGE

Manu chooses friendship and care before proving herself.

QUIET COURAGE

Manu does what is right even when no one is watching.

ENTER THE FIRST STORY

One story beat per frame.

HOOK

Before she was a queen, she was a girl who asked why.

MAITRI / STORY SERIES

MOMENT

Manu notices Badal is frightened. She chooses patience.

MAITRI / STORY SERIES

PROMPT

What is one small brave question you can ask kindly?

MAITRI / STORY SERIES

The physical experience continues the friendship.

Companion

A premium, playable friend.

Storybook

The emotional engine of the first box.

Letter

A direct relationship between Manu and the child.

Activities

Ways to draw, choose, talk, and revisit.

Stickers

A separate play insert using approved art and motifs.

All product specifications, age labels, safety claims, materials, and release promises remain subject to founder, production, compliance, and historical review.

A simple approval system protects the identity.

Before any Maitri work goes live.

- Uses the approved mark, lockup, palette, and Outfit hierarchy.
- Feels warm, story-led, child-facing, and parent-trusted.
- Uses organic cutouts and direct motifs without enclosing bubbles.
- Keeps body copy readable and keyboard focus visible.
- Separates historical anchors from invented story scenes.
- Avoids unsupported first, safety, outcome, product, and release claims.
- Works at desktop and approximately 390 px mobile without overflow.
- Respects reduced motion and keeps transitions subtle.
- Names the owner, review status, date, and source asset version.

Maitri

A world of stories, courage, kindness, and unforgettable friendships.

This brand book is a working master built from Maitri's current approved website identity, brand strategy, character direction, and asset system. Update it only through documented review.

09_demos/maitri-circle/public/assets/brand/
Maitri mark / 12 motifs / Outfit / official palette